Dear Charley,

I wish to thank you for your part in the success of the Facing Tomorrow Conference.

Your assistance, in cooperation with all the parties involved, enabled the conference's success and the immense attention it received to be felt worldwide thus resulting in amazing and heartfelt responses from across the globe saluting Israel's extraordinary accomplishments.

The conference was a first-rate intellectual experience and a show of strength for the State of Israel in its sixtieth year. It is my hope that the fruits of our efforts will assist tomorrow's leaders in forging a better future for Israel, the Jewish people, and the entire world.

I am hopeful that this unique gathering will continue to take place annually as a celebration of knowledge, creation and solidarity.

Best Regards,

Shimon Peres
